Dear Mrs. Kitchen:

I do not believe that the Salmon P. Chase College of Law Library is a member of the Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries. I should like to establish ties with the Chapter and would appreciate any information which you can furnish me concerning an institutional or personal membership.

I should also like to begin receiving the Chapter's literature, newsletters, etc. and assume this could be accomplished by paying annual dues. Any information which you can provide will be appreciated.

I hope your Marco Island meeting is productive. The program, about which Paul Willis and Pearl Von Allmen informed me, sounds most interesting. Due to a shortage of travel funds, no member of our library staff will be able to attend. However, I hope we can attend and become involved in future meetings.

Sincerely,

Ms. Charlotte L. Levy
